Big Apple Run For Reading

OUR PURPOSE AND MISSION

The Louisiana Resource Center for Educators (LRCE) is the only full service educational resource center in the state that serves public, parochial, charter, and private schools, as well as home school families.

LRCE certifies 200+ new teachers annually; offers professional development training for educators, and loans more than 60,000 PreK–12 grade instructional resources annually. The center also opens its doors to more than 9,700 individuals annually who attend seminars and workshops that are conducted by local/state entities and community organizations.

LRCE is dedicated to supporting innovation in education for students, teachers, administrators, higher education and families.

TEAM CAPTAIN'S RESPONSIBILITY

Congratulations! You have been selected as the team captain for the 4th Annual Big Apple Run for Reading.
